(New Location for Opening Ceremonies)

This year's Engineers Day opening ceremonies will be held Thursday, October 28th, 2010 at 10:00 am in the Cox Auditorium of the Alumni Memorial Building.

Buses must drop off students south of the University Center beyond the intersection of Andy Holt Ave. and Phillip Fulmer Way. Please do not drop students off on Cumberland Ave. or north of Andy Holt Ave. as this creates traffic congestion problems. Students will then need to cross over Phillip Fulmer Way and proceed up Middle Drive to enter the Alumni Memorial Building.
