

History of Giving

Senior Gift is an opportunity for UT seniors to take part in a long-standing tradition on campus. Since 1991, each graduating class has left an enduring legacy to its alma mater through participation in a senior class gift. During this time, seniors have pledged their loyalty to the university by giving over $300,000 to scholarship endowments, UT academic programs, and permanent campus monuments.

This year, it is our turn—the Class of 2010. The 2010 Senior Gift Committee proudly asks you to join us in leaving a lasting mark on our university.

How Can I Help?

Although gifts of any size are welcome, we challenge all seniors to make a gift of at least $50 to the campaign. Seniors who donate at least $50 will have a personalized brick placed on the Senior Sidewalk in Circle Park. In addition, they will receive commemorative honors cords to wear at graduation.

Where Does My Money Go?

The 2010 Senior Gift is The College Fund. The College Fund provides an opportunity to make your gift to one or more of UT's nine colleges. Gifts to The College Fund go to work immediately and are used to address the unique opportunities, challenges, and needs facing each college. Whether it is funding technology upgrades, student enrichment activities, and scholarships, or helping to retain outstanding faculty, you will take pride in knowing your gift is having an immediate, positive impact on the educational experience of students in the colleges of their greatest interest.
